Destination: CAMP U — A Spartan Summer Expedition

May 24, 2010 (East Lansing, Michigan) – Looking for a different kind of family vacation this summer? Look no further. The MSU Alumni Association introduces its first-ever camping adventure for Spartans, held, not on the Banks of the Red Cedar, but on the shores of Torch Lake located in northern Michigan.

“Camp U,” is an exciting summertime option for members of the Alumni Association, their family and friends. Members can take advantage of this four-day up-north adventure at YMCA Camp Hayo-Went-Ha Aug. 29 – Sept. 1.

Participants in Camp U can enjoy hiking, climbing and swimming. An optional daytrip to Sleeping Bear Dunes or a canoeing expedition is also offered, as well as education sessions about water and forest ecology provided by the MSU Extension. The adventure rounds out with a beachside bonfire, barbecue, and a visit from Sparty on the last night of camp.

For $295 per adult and $190 per K-12 child (up to age 18), all meals, on-site housing, a camp t-shirt and general camp activities are provided. Infants and preschoolers register for free. Housing is in camp-style 10-person cabins, but lodging is also available at Shanty Creek Resort for a discounted rate.

Spaces are limited, don't be left out!

An itinerary of daily activities and online registration is available at http://www.alumni.msu.edu/bigten/family_camp/.
